

THE LABOR CONFERENCE

FOURTEEN ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTED

Predictions of Failure of the Movement
Committees on Credentials and Resolutions Appointed—Speech Making Commences Balance of the Day—Ratford's Plan for Extra Session of Congress Not Approved—Extreme Measures Advocated

St. Louis, August 30.—The conference of the labor leaders, which began this morning, had a busy day. What the conference has accomplished, if anything, is in doubt. It is not believed the leaders have attained any definite result and, in fact, the president of one of the national organizations said tonight that the failure of the conference was a foregone conclusion. "I should feel very much chagrined," said this gentleman, "if I had any part in the convening of this conference."

The committee on resolutions and plans of action was at work all the afternoon and evening, and tonight Mr. Sovereign announced that they had formulated a plan, but declined to give any details. The platform, it is expected, will be submitted to the convention tomorrow morning. The fourteen different organizations represented in the convention make an unwieldy body, and it is evident that all of them cannot be satisfied with a platform formulated by five men representing as many branches of organized labor.

Mr. Ratford's plan to petition President McKinley to convene congress in extra session to enact measures providing for the settlement of the present labor difficulties or, as he puts it, "to define the rights of citizens, if any," did not meet with the approval he had hoped for, and it is not believed the idea will be incorporated in the platform.

Although present in the convention all day, Mr. Debs did not speak and did not put in an appearance at tonight's mass meeting, where he was widely advertised to make an address. He is represented on the resolution committee, however, by Mr. Berger, and as he has remained pretty close to the gentlemen composing that committee, it is safe to say his "social democracy" idea will be represented.

It is thought adjournment will be reached some time tomorrow. The only work accomplished at the morning session was the naming of a committee on credentials. This committee made its report immediately upon the assembling of the conference for its afternoon session. It was shown that eighty-eight delegates, representing the following organizations, were present: United Mine Workers of America; the Social Democracy; the American Federation of Labor; the Stone Cutters' International Union; Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators; Brotherhood of Bottle Blowers; Building Trades Council of St. Louis; the Patriots of America; International Brotherhood of Track Foremen; the Single Tax League of America; Central Labor Council of Cincinnati; the International Typographical Union; the People's Party of Kansas, and the Industrial Order of Freedmen.

The report, after some discussion, was adopted. It was decided, however, that the delegates to be recognized as coming from the particular organizations they represent instead of the general body. The report showed also the presence of one woman delegate—Mrs. Mary Jones, of Chicago, who represented the Social Democracy. After considerable discussion, the following committee on resolutions and plan of action was named: W. C. Pearce, of the Miners; W. J. Mahon, of the Street Railwaymen; Victor Berger, of Milwaukee, who represents the Social Democracy, in whose favor Mr. Debs declined; J. C. Clemens, of Topeka, representing the Populists, and James R. Sovereign.

Mr. Ratford then took the floor. He went over the labor strike from its conception to the present day, and dwelt particularly upon "government by injunction." He pleaded for prompt action, and, coming to the point of his argument, advocated a special session of congress as the best and, in fact, the only relief. "I believe," said Mr. Ratford, "a special session of congress is necessary to define the rights of the people of this country—if they have any. I believe if sufficient time were given the president of the United States he will call a special session of congress to act on the matter of injunctions and find means of relief from the existing troubles in the labor world. In case of refusal," said Mr. Ratford, "impressively, after an outburst of cheering had subsided, 'it will then be time to consider more extreme measures. I am in favor, if the president refuses to call congress together, of a complete paralysis of business. I believe then in a sympathetic strike.'"

Mr. Pat O'Neill, of Rich Hill, Mo., who said he represented 1,500 unorganized "picks," favored a labor revolution. He was a socialist, he said, and believed in the miners' taking things in their own hands if necessary.

Mr. Sovereign put himself on record as opposed to Mr. Ratford's plan. He believed this would be the last convention to be held under present conditions and that the crucial test now confronted organized labor.

Mr. Mahon made a fling at Senator Hanna, saying that the president would have to get Hanna's consent to the convening of congress.

Mr. James M. Carson, of the Illinois miners, said he believed his men would be beaten in two weeks. Telegrams of greeting and protests against "government by injunction" were received from the populist executive committee of the Sixteenth congressional district of Ohio, the German Trades Assembly, of Philadelphia, and the Atlanta Federation of Trades. A polite request to "quit monkeying and strike for single tax on land values" was then read from the Youngstown, Ohio, single taxers, and the talk went on.

Mr. Ratford took exception to Mr. Carson's statement that the Illinois miners had lost their strike. He said the miners were winning their strike and, furthermore, his men were not asking this convention for aid. They wanted this gathering to eradicate, if possible, the power of injunction. Making a fling at miner Pat O'Neill, he said a man who advocated the use of Winchester had no place in the convention.

James Hogan, formerly of the American Railway Union, and now representing the Social Democracy of Chicago; "General" Bradley, of Commonwealth fame, and "General" Heinemann, a Texas populist, kept up the flow of words until 5 o'clock, when the convention adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, at which time the resolutions committee is expected to report.

THE FAIR.

What Was Done at the Citizens' Meeting Last Night to Organize a Fair Association—A Committee Appointed to Solicit Stock and Report at a Meeting to Be Held September 20th.

In pursuance of the call for a meeting of citizens for the purpose of organizing a fair association, about forty citizens assembled at the city court room at the city hall last night at 8:30 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. M. W. Jacobi, Mr. W. E. Springer was called to the chair, and the representatives of the press were requested to act as secretaries. Chairman Springer stated the object of the meeting and suggested that an adjournment be taken till some other time, so a larger attendance could be secured, as many citizens were still absent at the beach or other resorts. He called for remarks as to the matter.

Mr. M. W. Jacobi spoke in favor of a fair and its advantages to our city. He said the movement for a fair last year resulted in a subscription of $7,000, but the project fell through because of a lack of a union of interest on the part of our people. He said we had many attractions here, and great resources that we could develop, and that if by a fair we could only induce ten settlers to come here, it would amply repay us. He hoped all selfish interests would be laid aside and pleaded for union in the organization of a fair association. He said if we will all put our shoulders to the wheel we could have a fair, horse races, bicycle races, base ball and other attraction, and he hoped the citizens would not lose this opportunity to organize and have a fair.

The chairman called on Mr. S. W. Sanders and he said he favored a fair, but this meeting was no indication that our citizens wanted one.

Mr. B. F. Keith was called upon and he also spoke in favor of a fair.

Mr. George G. Lewis advocated a fair and said he had met Governor Russell on the train yesterday and he said he hoped a fair association would be organized, and that he (Governor Russell) would subscribe $50 toward it. [Applause.]

Mr. J. B. Mercer said he favored a fair, and so did Mr. H. VonKampen.

Mr. Martin O'Brien was called upon and he urged the advantages of a fair and hoped Wilmington would decide to have one. He suggested the appointment of a committee to solicit subscriptions to a fair association.

Mr. S. W. Sanders said it would be a good idea to see how many subscriptions could be secured in this meeting towards a fair. He said he had subscribed $50, but would increase it to $100. [Applause.]

Mr. Joe King, Jr., stated that Mr. J. A. Arrington authorized him to say he would take $100 worth of stock, and that Mr. George McPherson told him he would subscribe $50. [Applause.]

Rev. W. B. Oliver said he favored a fair and he hoped the Wilmington people would come together and organize an association. He said the city had covered itself with glory in taking care of the Southern Baptist Convention and they would have a fair if they determined upon it. [Applause.]

Mr. M. W. Jacobi moved to adjourn till September 20th. There was no second.

Mr. Geo. G. Lewis moved that a committee be appointed to solicit subscriptions and report back to a meeting to be held September 20th.

Mr. S. W. Sanders seconded Mr. Lewis' motion.

Captain W. P. Oldham spoke in approval of Mr. Lewis' motion and it was adopted.

Editor A. L. Manly, of the Daily Record, said as one of the publishers of the only negro daily paper in the United States, he wanted to say that the colored people would co-operate in a fair and that his paper would do all it could towards aiding the enterprise.

The chairman asked how the soliciting committee should be appointed.

Mr. Lewis moved that the chair appoint the committee and that Captain W. P. Oldham be made chairman. There was no second.

Mr. Sanders suggested the appointment of a committee of two from each ward.

Captain Oldham suggested that a committee be appointed and allowed to select its own chairman.

Mr. VonKampen moved that Messrs. W. E. Springer, Captain W. P. Oldham and Mr. M. W. Jacobi be elected a committee to select the soliciting committee. The motion was seconded, but Mr. Springer declined to serve. On motion the chairman was authorized to appoint the third committee man and the motion was then adopted.

Chairman Springer appointed Mr. S. W. Sanders as the third committee man. On motion the meeting then adjourned till September 20th.

Residence Broken Into

In the absence of Mr. F. Rheinwein's family for the summer, a thief or thieves on Sunday night broke into his residence, on Market street, between Fifth and Sixth streets. A dime savings bank containing $2 or $3, and several articles of value, were stolen. There is no clue to the thief.

Think of The Difference between the nature of the cotton-plant and the habits of a hog, and you have the difference between Cottolene and lard. Cottolene is all that's pure and wholesome; lard has few redeeming features.

COTTOLENE

The genuine Cottolene is sold everywhere in one to ten pound yellow tins with our trade mark—"Cottolene" and a star in a cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Not guaranteed if sold in any other way. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Montreal.

THE SEASON AT THE BEACH.

The Seashore Hotel Closes Until Next Summer—It Has Been a Big Success—To Be Remodeled and Improved Next Season. Iron Pier to Be Built Over the Ocean.

Mr. George Campbell's Seashore Hotel, which was erected this spring and opened on the 10th of last June, closed for the season on yesterday morning after breakfast.

Mr. Campbell came up to the city yesterday and he was as smiling as a basket of chips. He tells us that the hotel has been a fine success and that he is highly satisfied with the business done by the house since it opened. Even Sunday he had nearly two pages of arrivals, including forty traveling men, besides the regular guests of the house.

Mr. Campbell is so well pleased with the fine patronage his hotel has received that he has decided to remodel the house next season and will erect a magnificent ball room with overhead balconies for spectators, a large pavilion for the use of excursionists, a pavilion saloon, and a couple of up-to-date bath houses. Besides these and other improvements, a company will also construct a large iron pier out over the ocean in front of the hotel.

Mr. Campbell has made a big reputation for the Seashore Hotel this season and he and his family have made a fine impression on the guests of the house. He has made a most agreeable and popular host, and The Messenger congratulates him upon his signal achievements as a resort hotelier. During the season he has had guests from nearly every state in the union, and they have gone abroad speaking in the highest terms of praise of the hotel and Wrightsville beach and its attractions.

Mr. Campbell says he expects to entertain five times as many guests next season as he has this season. He requests The Messenger to express his warm thanks to the people of Wilmington for their liberal patronage of his house and his high appreciation of their keen and kindly interest in the hotel, and to say to them that next season "the latch string will hang out" at all times where they can't fail to find it. He also expresses his grateful appreciation of the patronage of a generous public far and wide.

After a few days' work in getting things in shape at the hotel, Mr. Campbell will leave here for a business trip to New York and thence return to Charlotte.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, tetters, eczema, and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently. R. R. Bellamy.

Death of Mr. J. W. Furlong.

We are exceedingly sorry to chronicle the death of Mr. James William Furlong, who passed away at his home yesterday at 5 p. m.

Mr. Furlong was taken sick on the night of July 5th and has been ill eight weeks with typhoid fever. His friends hoped he would master the terrible disease, but at 3 o'clock yesterday morning he grew worse, and passed quietly away. He was the son of the late Mr. Walter and Mrs. Kate Furlong and was aged 25 years on last Christmas day. He leaves three brothers, Messrs. Walter A., John J. and E. J. Furlong, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary A. Bremer and Miss Kate Furlong, who have the deep sympathies of their many friends in the death of their lamented brother.

The deceased was a highly esteemed and popular young man and was a member of the Hibernian Benevolent society and of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, having been second assistant engineer and at the time of his death was first assistant. Both organizations will attend his funeral, which takes place from the residence, 704 Castle street, to St. Thomas' church, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The interment will be made at Oakdale cemetery.

Attempted Suicide

Maggie Evans, colored, who resides on Ninth street between Castle and Queen streets, attempted suicide yesterday at 10 o'clock by taking laudanum. Dr. T. R. Mask was called and administered antidotes that prevented the success of the rash act. This is the woman's second attempt, and it is said that disappointment in love is at the bottom of it.

"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure, and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles. R. R. Bellamy.

Quarrel Over Stock Law.

Manly, N. C. August 25.

To the Editor:

We notice in The Wilmington Messenger of July 21st, copied from The News and Observer, a statement to the effect that the Southern Pines people had about given up the enforcement of their stock law; that the officers of said town were forced to resign as soon as sworn in, at the point of a pistol, and a number of those pistol-pointers were to be tried at Carthage court this week.

We write to ask you to correct this falsehood and slander published on the people who are known as natives, or opponents of the Southern Pines stock law enforcement, as there is not a word of truth in your statement.

Mr. Moore, who was marshal or policeman for that town prior to the enforcement of the stock law, says that he was displaced by the appointment of the town authorities of another officer, namely, Mr. McIver. Mr. McIver says he resigned because of mistreatment by the town authorities, and gave as one particular reason that on trial, before the acting mayor, of a case for an affray, the mayor took the evidence of the negro in preference to that of his (McIver's).

No other officers of said town have resigned, so far as we have ever heard of, since the 1st of July last, when the stock law was put in force.

There are no cases to be tried at Moore superior court as you stated, and only those who have been asked to resign for resisting their stock law and that for a woman who cut down the pen and took her cow out. She was arrested and tried before a justice of the peace, and bound over to Moore county superior court, and her case now stands there for trial. As a matter of justice to all concerned, I write this.

J. E. BUCHAN.

Mills Resume Operations.
Lawrence, Mass., August 30.—Operations were resumed at the Atlantic mills today, after a shut down of four weeks. This will give employment to about 1,200 hands. Work was also resumed in the weaving department of the Methuen Company's mills at Methuen. Nearly all of the 450 operative employed in these mills are now at work.

Providence, R. I., August 30.—The Harris mills started today after a shut down of two weeks. The mills employ about 300 hands.

Somersworth, N. H., August 30.—The Great Falls Manufacturing Company mills here resumed operations on full time today after having been run forty hours a week since May.

Lowell, Mass., August 30.—The Lawrence cotton mills, in this city, started this morning after a shut down of four weeks. This is the last mill in the city to resume operations. In all of them it is said sufficient orders have been received to insure a prosperous season.

Threats to Lynch a Prisoner

Montgomery, Ala., August 30.—John Gafford, who shot F. B. Lloyd (Rufus Sanders), near Greenville last week, has been in jail at that place since Friday. Yesterday the sheriff had taken information that Gafford would be taken from jail and hanged. The officer called on the local military company and they were stationed around the jail all night, but no attempt was made to take the prisoner out. Today the sheriff of Butler county received a note that the mob had not given up the intention to wreak vengeance on Gafford. It was then decided to transfer him to Montgomery county. The prisoner arrived here at 6 o'clock this evening and is now in jail. There has been no attempt at lynching.

Supposed Suicide of a Lawyer

Asheville, N. C., August 30.—In Dillsboro, Jackson county, Saturday afternoon the clothing of J. W. Grant, said to be a lawyer from Rudersburg, S. C., were found on the brink of the Tuckasee river. He had been fishing with Professor Williams of that locality. The latter gave the alarm and had the river dragged for the body, but so far without avail. Grant is said to have told several persons he could not go back to his home at Rudersburg, S. C., where he has a brother, also a lawyer. In his pocket was found a letter addressed to J. H. Grant, his brother, at Flat Rock, N. C., stating he would leave for Flat Rock.

Grant is said to have remarked to several people at the hotel that he was going to drown himself. It is said he had been drinking Saturday afternoon, but was not badly intoxicated. He was apparently about 25 years old, and had just returned from the Nashville exposition.

Sending Out Money for Moving the Crops
New York, August 30.—The sub-treasury here today transferred for local banks through the treasury at Washington $100,000 in currency to Kansas City, and $25,000 in silver dollars to Texas through the sub-treasury at New Orleans. Shipments of cotton to the south and west today by banks direct were very large, all banks reporting the receipts of orders for remittances. The United States treasury is doing all it can to facilitate the transfer of currency, especially small bills and silver dollars, to places where the money is needed for moving the crops and to that end has placed supplies at the several sub-treasuries—New Orleans, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati—in order that the transfers may be made as quickly as possible.

The Atlantic Squadron Comes South

Washington, August 30.—The North Atlantic squadron, consisting of the flagship New York, and the Indiana, Massachusetts, Iowa, Maine, Texas and Brooklyn, sailed today from Bar Harbor, Me., for the south to begin the fall evolutions.

CALLING IN THEIR LOANS.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS WITHDRAWING FROM THE STATE.

Frightened by the Hostility of Our Courts. Very Weak Sentiment in Favor of Compulsory Education—Great Interest in the Governor's Attack on the Railway Commissioners—The Bitter Law Enforced—Butler and Otto Wilson at Odds

Messenger Bureau, Park Hotel.

Raleigh, N. C., August 30.

The action of the supreme court in regard to building and loan associations, etc., is keeping money out of the state. A letter says that money is not being invested for this reason; that the holders would be glad to lend it, but that the supreme court is so bitterly hostile to all foreign corporations that companies are withdrawing from the state as rapidly as they can call in loans. They say they regret this, because they look upon North Carolina as a state in which they could make very favorable loans, provided the courts would view contracts as binding upon borrowers.

The streets around the capitol square are to be macadamized with shell rock from the state phosphate mine, at Castle Haynes. Some of this is in use here and is admirable.

The "blue laws" are in force in Raleigh. Only one ice house was open yesterday, and there were many complaints. The drug stores were only open a short time during the day. Ice cream drinks were sold, and no cigars. The Sunday closing matter is sure to be an issue in the city election next May.

The crops north of here, say from the Wake line to the Virginia line, are said to be among the poorest in the state, this being due to the drought.

Cotton has certainly been cut 10 per cent by drought, upon a comparison of its present condition and that of August 1st.

From talks with a number of persons it is gathered that the present sentiment in this state in favor of compulsory education is very weak indeed.

Public interest is now great in the outcome of the governor's attempt to oust two of the railway commissioners. The replies of the two commissioners will be filed Wednesday morning. That of Chairman Wilson is prepared. Otto Wilson went to Round Knob yesterday to obtain some affidavits in his case.

The farmers appear to think that there will be a late autumn, which they specially desire, so all the cotton will mature. The crop is almost two weeks late, it seems.

It is now quite clear that Otto Wilson is at odds with Senator Butler. He remarked yesterday that he had been making governors and senators, but was now going out of that line of business and proposed to do something for himself.

The news that at the trial of the suit of the Plate Ice Company against the Seaboard Air Line for the loss of its factory here, there will be some startling testimony, is interesting. The company got some $16,000 from the insurance companies for the burned property, which, it claims, was set on fire by a spark from a Seaboard Air Line engine.

The weather is intensely warm and very trying. Rain is again needed by all crops.

The state labor commissioner leaves Wednesday on a tour among the mines of the extreme western counties. He will make the trip on horseback.

Farmers' institutes are being held in the southwestern counties. At none has the attendance been large. It is the plan to hold a series in the east later in the year.

The news which comes from various sections of the state is that the democrats are beginning to fall in line. Interest in the party and in the work ahead is reviving.

The Times, Raleigh's new afternoon newspaper, appeared this afternoon. Wake county's corporations number twenty-four, with $1,500,000 capital stock.

Work begins in October on the Capitol Club's $25,000 building here. The architect is Frank P. Milburn, of Charlotte.

There is quite a strong movement for the removal of the capitol square fence.

Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar. R. R. Bellamy.

Annual Meet of R's Association
Sea Girt, N. J., August 30.—The seventh annual meeting of the Jersey Rifle Association began at this place today, under conditions favorable for good shooting. There is a large attendance of crack-shooters from different parts of the country. There are to be twenty-five matches, including the Wimbledon cup, Hilton trophy, all comers, military, New Jersey Rifle Association, several cental match, carbine team, revolver match, regimental team (inter-state), New Jersey national guard and the Columbia trophy.

The targets this year, represent the positions of a man. The head and shoulders appear on the 200 and 300 yards targets; three quarters of the figure at 500 and 600 yards; full size figure at 800 yards, while on the 1,000 yards target the whole figure mounted on a horse is shown.

Committeeman Harry's Position Attacked.

Reading, Pa., August 30.—Democratic State Chairman John M. Garman, this afternoon made public his reply to the letter given out by Mr. Harry last night. Chairman Garman insists that Mr. Harry's place on the national committee be vacated by him because of his retirement from politics, and that it be filled by an active worker whose loyalty cannot be questioned. Mr. Harry's position during the campaign last fall is severely criticized, and the charge is made that he was positively disloyal to Mr. Bryan during the latter's visit to Pennsylvania. The fairness of Mr. Harry's election as a member of the committee is also questioned.

Fire in the Hold of a Steamer.

Charleston, S. C., August 30.—The British steamship Oswestry, Captain Wilson, arrived here this morning from Huelva with her cargo of pyrites on fire. The fire was confined to holds 2 and 3. As soon as the steamer was docked the tug Hercules commenced to pour water into the holds. When the fire is extinguished the cargo will be unloaded and placed on lighters.

Sheriff Pritchard Will Recover

Asheville, N. C., August 30.—A special to The Citizen from Cranberry, N. C., says that George Pritchard, sheriff of Mitchell county, and brother of Senator J. C. Pritchard, who was shot through the lung by a desperado last Friday morning, will probably live. The senator is with him.
